

How to create an account

1. Select "Create an Account" under "Member Login"

2. Click Create.

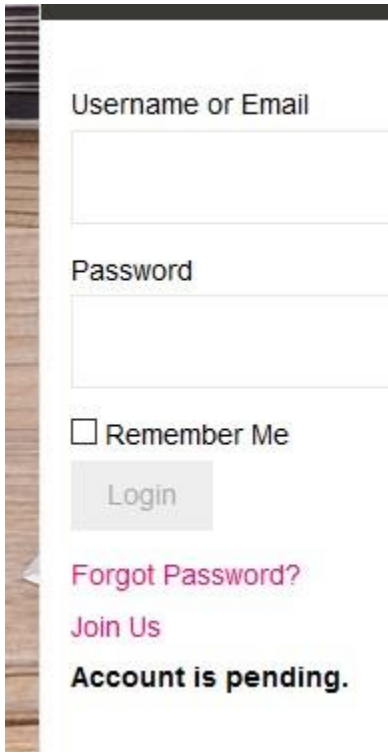

3. Fill in the blanks and then click on "Register" (Please write the username and password down for future reference)

A screenshot of the "REGISTRATION" form. The page has a dark header with the title "REGISTRATION" and a breadcrumb "Home / Create an Account". The form contains several input fields: "Username", "Email", "Password", "Repeat Password", "First Name", "Last Name", and "Membership Level". Below the "Membership Level" field, there is a "Member" label and a "Register" button. A large black arrow points to the "Register" button.

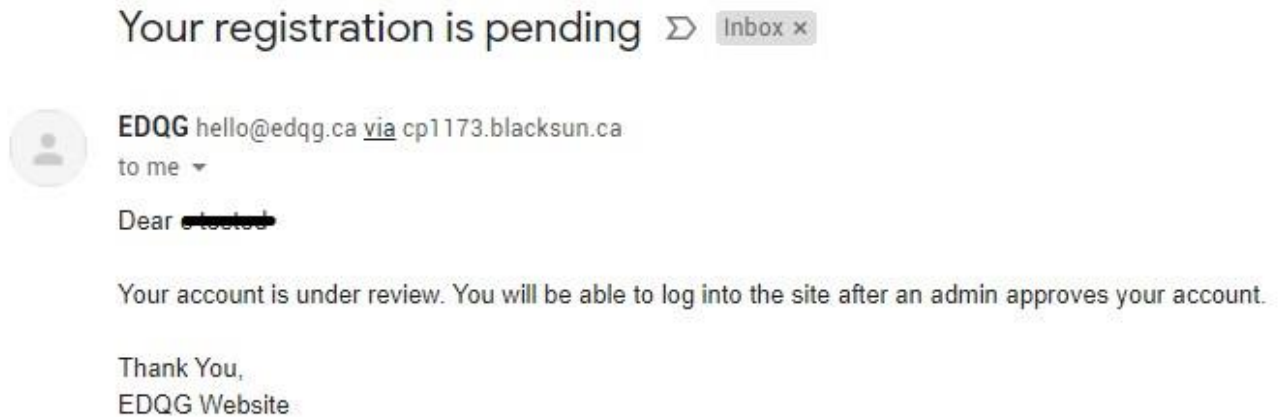

4. You will then get the following message.

a. You will NOT be able to login yet. If you try to log in at this time (by filling in your username and password), you will get the following message.

b. Your email will show the following email.

5. Once the account is approved by the webmaster, you will receive another email.

6. You can now go back to the EDQG website and login using the username or email and password you entered in step 3. Once logged in, you will see all the public areas of the website and the members' only areas.

Please Note:

The webmaster does not have access to any passwords.

If you forget your password, you will have to reset your password.

Steps on how to reset your password can be found in the "How to reset password" document on the website.
